TWO OFFICIALS OF PUBLIC SCHOOL BOARD RETIRE

DR. D. J. DUNN,
H. STORY WILL LEAVE SERVICE

Medical Officer, Building
Commissioner at Retirement Age

Retirement of officials of the Edmonton Public School board, whose service under the board spanned a quarter-century, was announced at the trustees' meeting Tuesday night.

Dr. D. J. Dunn, medical health officer, who reaches the compulsory retirement age of 70 on July 31 next, was retired, his service to terminate August 31.

H. Story, A.R.I.B.A. building commissioner, who will reach the retirement age late in March, 1937, tendered his resignation, to take immediate effect.

FIRST MEDICAL OFFICER

Dr. Dunn, who was born in Simcoe county, Ontario and graduated in medicine at University of Toronto, was the board's first medical officer, taking the appointment in October 1910, nearly 26 years ago.

He came to Edmonton from the east, arriving in the city on the first day of the inauguration of the province of Alberta in 1905.

There were some 200 people at the north side of the river, in 1911, the first year this institution was started. In this year of 1936 there are more than 1,000 in the board's jurisdiction.

GOOD TOURIST SEASON LIKELY

OTTAWA, July 8.—Hon. C. D. Howe, minister of transport, said last night the 1936 tourist season in Canada "is likely to approach the peak year of 1929 and will certainly exceed by a considerable amount the traffic of last year."

"Demand for travel information on Canada has been increasing for more than at any time in the last seven years," he said. "To date the Canadian Travel Bureau has handled 43,000 direct inquiries from prospective tourists in the United States, an increase of 100 per cent in inquiry business over the same period last year."

GREATEST WORK

His greatest work was the promotion of diaphanous prevention treatment, in which he enlisted the aid of a volunteer corps of city medicine men to give the move campaign.

Since 1926, he reports, only one case has been developed in the schools. In 1931, a pupil who had not received the treatment, Dr. Dunn, said, was practically been wiped out.

He has one son and one daughter. Dr. Dunn is a graduate of Toronto University, who is now practicing medicine at Goldfield, Sask.

Dr. Dunn's other outstanding architectural work in the designing and construction of Edmonton schools has won him the degree of Associate of the Royal Institute of British Architects and membership in the Alberta Association of Architects, where he was elected as president.

He entered the board's service 26 years ago as chairman under the then building commissioner, whom he succeeded in 1930.

Dr. Story, who is now practicing medicine at Goldfield, Sask., is the second son, Alan, is deceased.

Dr. Story has no plans following his retirement.

U.S. BROUGHT RELIEF SCHEME
SET IN MOTION

President Roosevelt Names

Associated Press Staff Writer
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Pres- ident Roosevelt Tuesday set in motion a drought relief program designed to provide incomes for 18,000 distressed families, feed livestock, and change the economy of the "dust bowl" of the United States.

He named himself the nation's number one inspector to check personally next month on progress of his plans.

Flanked at a press conference by administration, executive interested in drought relief, the President said families in the parched area would receive aid through relief projects and subsidies on loans and grants. Government loans, he said, will be made to small cattle feeders to have their fountains here.

ALICE RECONNY

The new plan, he disclosed, contemplated assistance of farmers to new enterprises, which would depopulate the affected region, but which would also be the economy of the drought stricken and half the acre of direct relief, about $100,000,000 during the last three years.

Under the plan, the committee of the agriculture department named the drought stricken areas of North and South Dakota, Montana and Wyoming where Federal relief would be made. The A.A.A. already has worked out plans for the drought stricken areas of the United States, which are suitable for livestock.

LONG RANGE DISASTER

The government, Mr. Roosevelt said, "is dealing with a long range disaster." He added that where the relief program was fully underway within the next few days, it was going out to the dust bowl to see how things were getting along.

The President estimated the number of families in need of immediate cash relief at 20,000. He said that in the northwest drought stricken areas—the Dakotas, Minnesota, Wyoming and Montana—there were 1,000,000 families in need of immediate cash relief.

To bring cash promptly into the hands of the needy farmer, he revealed that $3,000 were being taken from the Treasury. A job at regular weekly wages averaging $100 a week, he said, would be advanced to 50,000 families as part of the regular relief program. In addition, 100,000 families already receiving assistance.

TO BE AIDED

That, he concluded, 17,000 families would be helped through the W.P.A. job at the next few weeks, leaving a gap of 100,000 for which aid still to be found.

Mr. Roosevelt described the work as simple wage-paying, building and social insurance act and the natural products marketing act. It found partly in the Department of Commerce and partly in the Department of Agriculture.

The livestock program in the drought stricken areas of the United States, he said, will be to move livestock to private enterprise, as contrasted with government buying during the 1934 drought. The private operation, he explained, will protect the foundation of the individual cattle raiser.

INCREASED ACREAGE

Turning to grain crops, the President pointed particularly to an increase of nearly 10 per cent, in the wheat seeded this year of the 1936-37 average. He estimated the corn acreage, too, as considerably more than that planted last year.

Then he remarked that the figures contradicted assertions that the government was conducting a crop reduction campaign.

Asserting there was no indication anyone was going to starve the President said the last government estimate showed a wheat yield of about 600,000,000 bushels and a carryover of 100,000,000 bushels against a domestic consumption of about 625,000,000 bushels.

SPOKANE, Wash. July 8.—The mid-western drought has stopped a projected caravan of Canadians to Spokane and other northwest United States cities, the Chamber of Commerce here was advised Tuesday.

Advices from Saskatchewan said the 800 farmers and business men here today had decided to "postpone" the trip because of the serious crop situation.

A telegraph post for the telegraph office, a trunk for the baggage office, and a big questionnaire for inquiries are set up at the Chamber of Commerce here. The symbols were usually understood.

The two men who were invalid, the employment and social insurance and natural products marketing statutes, were regarded as the most important of the "new deal" measures produced by the former conservative administration.

RECEIVE DOLE

Under the first men and women working in industrial undertakings would have been able to contribute a portion of their wages to a fund and receive a dole if they lost their jobs. The second allowed producers of natural products to set prices and regulate marketing of their goods.

Under the natural products marketing act several associations of producers were formed and established to control marketing. The existing machinery was not affected by the opinions but new operations under the act were suspended until a domestic consumption of about 625,000,000 bushels.

ROME, July 8.—Italian military airplanes were reported today sent out to make "mass reprisals" against an Ethiopian district in which at least four Italian fliers were slain June 26.

LONDON, July 8.—Reports, which Italian officials denied, last night said eight or nine Italian officers, among them the noted flier Antonio Locatelli, had been killed in an Ethiopian ambush.

In Rome it was stated officially the reports were not true but reliable sources there said an unidentified Italian air general and nine aviators including Locatelli were killed in a campaign which lasted several days ago.

KILLED ON LANDING

The reports, which the Reuters Agency said came from unofficial sources, asserted the officers were killed as soon as they landed in three planes to establish a garrison on the request of Jimma Province residents.

The victims were said to have included a deputy chief of air staff, which was not given.

Jimma province, southeast of Addis Ababa, is not yet completely occupied by Italian troops, according to reports from Italy to North Africa.

ABANDONED PLANS

The Italian had abandoned plans to fly to the North Pole, and left the States cruise, Richmond, on round-the-world fliers, Lowell Smith and Erik Nelson, on a 20,000-mile trip to Greenland. The Americans reached Greenland, but Locatelli, who found 123 miles east of Cape Farewell.

School's Out! But 300 Children Hasten to Enroll in City Vacation Schools

ERHART'S is the assurance that they will have no homework, or the idea of covering as much work in 10 days as they did in half of their whole year at Sunday school that has prompted the enthusiastic enrollment of more than 300 children in the city vacation schools which opened this week. It is expected that eventually well over 1,000 Edmonton boys and girls between the ages of four and 14 years will have joined this interdenominational project whose object it is to "make holidays a time of recreation, not of idleness," and to utilize the summer hours for beneficial study, conducted under a five-week program. Worship, music, Bible training, supervised play and handwork are the main features of the vacation school period, which extends from a quarter past nine until a quarter past 10 o'clock each week.

Who's Who Among Educationists

REGULAR INSTITUTION

Conducted under the Religious Education Council for Canada, church vacation schools have taken their place in late years, as definite summer institutions with special text books and organization throughout the whole Dominion. The Alberta branch of the Council conducted 100 schools last year, 16 more than in Edmonton and 25 more in surrounding rural districts. At 11 of these rural districts the vacation school was the only method of religious education children had but throughout the entire province. Attendance at the Edmonton branch last year was 1,000, an increase of 50 per cent over the preceding season. The total attendance in the province was 3,000.

A new curriculum in grades one to six is being put into effect and she was one of the central committee of charge of a detailed plan.

In pace with a veritable "revival of learning," some 2,000 teachers are being equipped in the summer school to learn new methods which Dr. Dickie has been instrumental in introducing. WIDELY READ AUTHOR A clever writer, Dr. Dickie is widely known as the author of several best-selling books. Her books are really not text books at all but interesting story books which are written in a style which is so subtle that little students are hardly aware of them. She loves and knows children and it is the happy faculty of being able to see through their eyes that has made her work so successful.

To Be Married at Midsummer

Clark-Bladon Nuptial Service is Fully Choral

One of the loveliest of summer weddings was solemnized at St. Mark's church on Saturday evening when Miss Edith Canine Bladon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Bladon, became the bride of Mr. Herbert Bladon, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Bladon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. Stanley.

The bride was a real figure in an exquisitely mounted gown of ivory satin, worn with her veil of silk embroidered with gold and blue. She carried a bouquet of white and pink roses. The bridegroom was in a tuxedo with a white shirt and a white bow tie.

Society Goes To the Zoo To Dance

LONDON, July 8.—Fashionable ball was held at the zoo tonight. The dancing was in the open air, the music furnished from the trees, more than 1,000 debutantes and members of the younger married set danced on the specially arranged floor to help Queen Charlotte's Hospital. They dined on the balconies of the zoo and the music was played in the reptile house, the chimpanzee quarters and all kinds of old places.

Lions and tigers paced their cages, and the dancers with laughing mien; illuminated elephants swung their trunks over railings enclosing flitting flamingoes, seals dived and swam in an unexpected bath of artificial light, polar bears paced to and fro ghost-like on their padded feet.

Many members have already made reservations for the next year, which will be held at the same place. The "Junior Spectator" for the summer program is filled with the names of the young people who will be their major undertaking for the year.

Violent Clash Over New Intermediate School Unit

S.A.G. Barnes Hurls Charges at Chairman Ottewell in Battle

Fiery Social Credit Member Accuses Chairman of "Just Ramming Recommendations Through."

Temper exploded with loud denials as the public school board meeting almost became a "rasle royal." Tuesday night, as it came to a close in a violent altercation, mixed with gavel blows on the table, between Trustee S. A. G. Barnes and Chairman A. E. Ottewell. With the board sitting in committee of the whole, Mr. Barnes had been on his feet frequently, expounding his views on the proposed reorganization under the new curriculum and initiation of the new intermediate school.

DR. CRANG IMPATIENT
After several extensions of time had been moved to allow discussion to continue, Trustee Dr. F. W. Crang and Mr. Barnes, who were both in the room, were told to pass the recommendations, with the exception of the new curriculum, to be subject to review.

"That's just ramming it through," Mr. Barnes exclaimed, again leaning to his feet.

His patience exhausted, Chairman Ottewell interrupted, "Well, after all, Mr. Barnes, you are just one member in seven."

"Well, I intend to use outside force, and it is not being done tonight," Mr. Barnes said.

"You mean," Mr. Ottewell countered heatedly, "I refuse to accept that statement. You see me, one member in seven."

"You do, and if you were a gentleman you would give it to me," Mr. Ottewell's voice rose over Mr. Barnes' clamor.

"You do not," Mr. Barnes replied, "sit down."

"Mr. Ottewell's gavel came down as he spoke."

RECOMMENDATION PASSED
Mr. Barnes submitted and the motion was passed. The committee then reverted into a regular board meeting and the recommendation was passed by the board.

Last objection, except for Mr. Barnes' objections, was the formation of an intermediate school unit at Macleay school, but difficulties were smoothed to some extent when Trustee Mr. Barnes said that the Monday night and explained the situation.

At Tuesday night's meeting, Trustee F. C. Casselman said: "This is not an experiment. It is not going to last for ever and ever."

Dr. Crang mentioned that organization should provide that the grade one and two children who

TURNS 1ST SOD
FOR INSTITUTE

Bissell Memorial Hall to Be Built at 96 Street, 102A Avenue

At an impressive ceremony attended by 100 persons, Dr. R. C. Wallace, retiring president of the University of Alberta, Tuesday afternoon, turned the first sod for the Bissell Memorial Institute to be erected at the corner of 102A Avenue and 96 Street adjacent to the Boyle street baseball grounds.

The Institute is being erected by funds bequeathed to the Home Mission Board of the United Church of Canada for this purpose.

The late T. C. Bissell, manufacturer of the Bissell disc harrow, left $100,000 to the United Church to be used in home missions. Of this amount $30,000 was designated for the erection of an Institute at whatever place Dr. J. T. Stephens, pastor of the All Peoples' Mission, was located at the time of Mr. Bissell's death. Mr. Stephens met Mrs. Bissell in Saskatchewan some years ago when he, (Mr. Stephens), was engaged in organizing agricultural and boys' fairs, as part of the social service work of the defunct United Church of Canada.

"I feel that this memorial institute will serve the purpose of the kingdom of God and assist the people of this community to walk rightly and do justly," Dr. Wallace said.

Rev. G. A. Macdonald, chairman of the committee in charge, conducted the service. Rev. W. E. Kidd led in prayer. Rev. A. B. Arzoo and Rev. J. T. Stephens also took part in the ceremony. Dr. Stephens pronounced the benediction.

The new institute will cost $23,000 and a $7,000 fund for maintenance and upkeep will be established. A chapel, gymnasium and work rooms will be housed in the new building. It will be open to the public at all times.

Mr. Bissell and his daughter will attend the opening of the institute in the fall.

Canada Life Will Move Local Chief

G. A. Prang, who has been named in Edmonton for the Northern Alberta branch of the Canada Life Assurance company for the past nine years, is being transferred to Brantford, Ontario. He will leave the city for the end of July 10, when his place will be succeeded by George Lomas, branch manager from Calgary.

Since his arrival in Edmonton in 1927 from Stratford, Ontario, Mr. Prang has taken an active part as a citizen of Edmonton. Last year he was president of the Northern Alberta Life Insurance Society, a member of the Kiwanis and the chamber of commerce. He was general superintendent of Robertson United Church Sunday School and a member of Ivanhoe Masonic Lodge.

Edmonton Masons will send no representatives to the 81st annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of Canada, A.F. & M. July 15 to 18, in Toronto, when 2,000 Masons from Canada and the United States will gather.

THE INQUIRING REPORTER

It is true what they say about Dixie.

This is just a song, but a masterpiece as a member of the Black Legion recently popped it at a dimmed garage in an hotel and started them into heading flight. So the Bulletin's inquiring reporter tried it on a few perfectly unsuspecting citizens.

KAY WEBER, photographer: "It is a catch in the eye. I'm not going to do it to you."

MADLINE SIMON WILLIAMSON, cashier: "Oh, go away. What do you want? I suppose you're the Inquiring Reporter this week."

MRS. ALICE McCABE, business career at Medicine Hat, Alberta, said: "I don't know what they say about Dixie."

KEITH SHEARER, commercial artist: "Well, I'd like to go down town and see the Rialto. I've heard it's a pretty good show."

TOOTS ROGERS, clerk: "I don't know—is it?"

DOROTHY MACDONALD, stenographer: "About whom?"

CHARLIE MCLELL, salesman: "I don't know the first thing about it. So long."

GORDON RAE, student: "That's a pretty stupid question to be asking me, isn't it?"

DOROTHY LEE, social mixologist: "You seem to know all the answers to my questions. I don't know what you're up to."

ALLAN HIRSH, banker: "I'll be—is it?"

AGNES MACFARLANE, stenographer: "I'm in a hurry... I've got to go to the moon."

PEGGY O'CONNOR, student: "Well, what in the world?"

GEOFFREY HARRIS, buyer: "Should I run or fight?"

25 Years' Service

Dr. D. J. Dunn, medical health officer of the Edmonton Public School Board, and H. Storer, A.U.A., building commissioner, will retire at the end of the summer, after 25 years of service with the Board. Dr. Dunn reaches the compulsory retirement age of 70 on July 21, and Mr. Storer in March, 1937. Both have had distinguished careers, linked with the development of educational service in this city.

WARM WAVE RETURN DUE

By 1:30 p.m. Wednesday it was 71 in the shade with more heat in prospect. Weather officer "gases" was that it might get well into the high eighties before the sun passes its peak after 3 p.m.

Edmonton was the only point in Alberta to be blessed with crop-hoisting rains the past 24 hours. Between 3 and 5 p.m. Tuesday, 40 inches fell and then the sun went to work again hoisting the mercury to 72, the high for the day.

From an over-night low of 45 to 48, the sun redid up the glass to 74 at 8 a.m. and the forecast for Wednesday was for a high of 77 and a low of 48.

Gloomy note in the weather station report: "There is a possibility of rain and showers, but no sun and no wind."

From a sunset time of 9:06, it dropped overnight to 8:52, and the sun set at 8:42. The sun set at 8:42. The sun set at 8:42.

The fire was discovered by a Cavalier, janitor of the Capital block, who immediately awakened all the tenants in the block after turning in an alarm. Two lines of hose from No. 2 station, under the direction of Fire Chief Albert Dutton, distinguished the blaze.

FlAMES DRIVE 14 FROM BLOCK

Fourteen tenants of the Capital block, 10210 1st street, were forced to leave their beds when a fire of an unknown origin broke out in the store room at the rear of the Capital at 12:25 a.m. Wednesday. Damage was slight.

It marked the second call that No. 2 station pumps under the direction of Fire Chief Albert Dutton answered within an hour and a half. The first alarm being a small fire which broke out at 12:10 a.m. in the store room at rear of 10334 10th street.

LEADER SETS RECORD FOR COACHING OF STALLIONS

LOOKING THEM OVER

By JACK KELLY
You've Got To Hand It To These Australians—300 Horses Coming Here—Heil Ducey!

Plenty of top-of-the-line horses have come out of Australia, and plenty more are likely to come, but one of the best that has percolated up from down under is the story of a race at Sydney having been won by a horse that had been scratched. Glenwich is the nag who performed this history-making feat. When the names of the horses entered in the Flying Handicap were posted on the board, Glenwich's name was missing, being reported as scratched.

Dover Patrol and King's Head were the ruling favorites. Nobody counted the horses that went to the barrier, but when they came pounding down the stretch the fans stared in pop-eyed amazement. Dover Patrol and King's Head were second and third and an unknown horse was in the lead. What is more, the unknown maintained the lead and won. Finally someone found out that the winner was none other than the scratched Glenwich.

After the crowd had done a lot of good Australian growling, the officials discovered that Glenwich had been scratched by an employee who had misunderstood the owner's orders. Just as the horses started from the paddock, the owner had the mistake corrected, but there had not been time to re-list the horse on the board. The judges ruled that the win was legitimate and it stood. It was a big day for the bookies, however, and gave them the biggest kill they have enjoyed for months. There was not a single bet taken on Glenwich.

Fine Race Field For Edmonton
Returning from the Calgary stables yesterday afternoon, P. W. Abbott, K.C., managing director of the Edmonton exhibition, reported that over 300 horses would be shipped here for next week's race meet. Stable quarters have been provided already for 308 animals.

In addition to the daily program of seven races, starting at 2 p.m., efforts are being made to run the three hurdle races as special events. The first will be on Monday, the second on Wednesday, and the third on either Friday or Saturday if enough entries can be obtained.

With a field as large and good as any which has ever been stabled down here, next week should give the track fans plenty of thrills for their money. Given a good break in the weather, the money may run into record figures. You pick and have it on the line and if you're lucky you get a bushel basketful back. Oh, yeah?

Shastas Toughen Up
Last night the Shastas looked like a new ball team with Jack Kalles at second base. This is the player Joe Davies brought up from California with him when the horses joined the team. The Shastas acquired him over the week-end after the southern league blew up. There is no question but what he is the best-looking second baseman that Edmonton has seen for a good many years—that is if his play last night is his average form.

Two more players are now on their way to bolster the Cards and Shastas. Malman, the property of Seattle, was last aboard train and will arrive here tonight. He will pitch for the Cardinals. George Paul of Oakland, a right-handed pitcher, is also headed for Edmonton to join the Shastas. With these reinforcements and the fact that Ponoka and Waskiwin have added, the league should settle down into a real pennant race.

A few days ago the old colonel made a gentle appeal to Umpire John Ducey to put a little speed, zip and pep into the game. The last two affairs down in Renfrew Park have left nothing to be desired in that respect. The Braves-Cardinals game was run through in one hour and 42 minutes, while last night's tilt took just one hour and 42 minutes to complete. Ducey was down on top of every play and there was little or no crabbing on his calls. Nice work, John! We'll leave the family moustache on the peg for a while longer.

GRAVELLE TOPS TRAP SHOOTERS

The weather man was kind to the clay busters Tuesday evening at the Edmonton Gun Club and the great scores were turned in especially in the lower classes. Dave Carver with 24 was high in class AA but in class A there was a real exhibition of shooting. Fred Green and Jimmy Glenwich, each broke 25 straight, and in the shoot-off Glenwich won with 29 to Green's 22. Both of these experts came up to class AA. In class B, W. Tuller was high with 22, while in class C another expert took place when S. Davies got them all but two to take the silverware.

On Wednesday, July 22, the old timer veteran winners shoot will be taking in at the Gun Club.

YESTERDAY'S SCORES
Class AA—Dan Carver 24, Buster Black 21, Fred Tuller 20, W. Tuller 19, W. McDougall 21, C. Brown 21.
Class B—W. Tuller 22, Charlie Craddock 21, Al. Gerrie 20, St. B. Jones 19.
Class A—Fred Green 25, Jimmy Glenwich 25, Len Ware 21.

"Red" Tulloch, battle-scarred veteran of Alberta baseball, returned to the Edmonton picture last night when he first took to the plate in the game which the Shastas defeated the Wetaskiwin Braves by a distinct killing to his fire balls. They blasted out eight hits for seven runs off him in the first five innings and then hammered Jimmy Ray for four more hits and three runs in the remaining three innings for a 10-0 shutout.

However, despite the top-sided score, the game was fast and good all the way through. Umpire John Ducey, hustled, the players hustled, and the big majority of fans left Renfrew Park completely satisfied. It was clean, hard-hitting and almost perfectly defensive ball by the Shastas that won the game. Morey got a home run and Tulloch and Williams added two triples and Bankston contributed a two-bagger.

The feature of the game was the initial appearance of two new Shasta players, Leroy Goldsworthy and Jack Kalles. Goldsworthy played left field and had a light evening with only one fly to back. On his first trip to the plate his fans gave him a big welcome and he responded with a scintillating drive through the pitcher's box to centre field. It was his line hit of the same hour.

KALLES IS SMART
Jack Kalles, the young Californian, who Dave Brown brought up for the Medicine Hat Royals, the weekend, turned in a sensational fielding performance for the second time. He handled nine assists and two putouts without error.

Ernest, fielding chances perfectly executed at second in a single game within two of the present major league record.

Major Shastas' laying the ash on the offerings of the Braves' bullpen for the Cafe-men. He held the slugger Dave Tulloch in the pen, which were in the same innings. Firing his six, no two which were in the same innings.

Wynn turned in a really brilliant performance that was the best of his career. He was in the pen, which were in the same innings. Firing his six, no two which were in the same innings.

HAD BIG THIRD
The scoring did not start until the Shastas got a hit in the half of the third frame. Then with one out, Kalles singled and Tulloch followed with a triple. Tulloch followed with a triple in right field. Tulloch followed with a triple in right field.

The balance of the scoring was done in the sixth off Hattieson who replaced Tulloch. Three hits a walk and two infield errors gave the Shastas three more runs.

FORT BASEBALL
TEAM WINS 5-4

The Fort Saskatchewan baseball nine took a close 4-3 verdict over the Edmonton team in the first game of the season.

The Fort boys took their winning margin in the first three innings, when they scored four runs, while the Edmonton team scored only one.

Thursday night will bring the second game of the season when the Fort boys will come to play the Shastas in the game that may determine the winner of the first half of the season.

Strengthened by the addition of the Dave Ray and Lester Brown, the pitching staff, Ponoka is expected to be a contender for the title.

The 26th of the season will be the first game of the season when the Cardinals and the Shastas will meet in the first game of the season.

A BEDTIME STORY

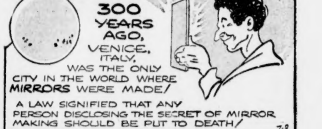

Story by HAL COCHRANE Pictures by GEORGE SCARBO

Brave Scouty painted for a while, then said to Coggy, with a smile, "Well, here's good luck to you, or cloud. Right now you can feel very good, but you're a little bit tired. Well, son, go right ahead. Just do not splash the paint around, or let it splatter on the ground. When Coggy has his turn, I want to paint, too. Doty said, 'Wee Duncy laughed aloud and said, 'I'll bet you will be good,' said he.

Why, they are not supposed to paint. I'll gladly take your turn. "If we're to do this strange task right, we must not make the cloud's face. Course I will let you watch me, and then maybe you can lead." Of course I don't," the princess said. "You little too right ahead, the old cloud is willing. Brand-new places may be found. "In all directions are strange lands. And then the happy band joined hands. It was a funny sight to see them dancing round and round.

Curious World by William Ferguson

The Venetian guarded well the secret of mirror making. All factories producing mirrors were located on the isolated island of Murano, and no foreigners were allowed to set foot on the island. But after many years the secret escaped. Four glassworkers were bribed by certain interests in France to run away from Venice and take their mirror-making art to that country.
